is granted authorization according to Oeko-Tex® Standard 100 to use the Oeko-Tex® mark, based on our test report 09.0.69273

for the following articles:

Knitted garments like T-Shirts, polo shirts for men, women and children made of 100 % cotton, cotton/elastane, cotton/modal, melange (cotton/polyester) in white, reactive dyed, printed (pigment, water based ink (non-PVC), PA-flock), yarn dyed (100 % cotton) and finished, with accessories (polyester buttons, zippers, woven and printed labels, sewing and embroidery threads, mobilan tapes and interlinings), produced by using material certified according to Oeko-Tex® Standard 100.

The results of the inspection made according to Oeko-Tex® Standard 100, product class II have shown that the above mentioned goods meet the human-ecological requirements of the standard presently established for products with direct contact to skin.

The certified articles fulfil the requirements of the existing European legislation regarding the use of azo-dyes.

The holder of the certificate, who has issued a conformity declaration according to ISO 17050-1, is under an obligation to use the Oeko-Tex® mark only in conjunction with products that conform with the sample initially tested.

This authorisation is valid until 30.09.2010
